Reading Choice Board

Directions: Try to do at least 3 learning activities from the board below for the week. Please choose one activity from each row. You are welcome to post your responses on Seesaw.

Read a fiction or nonfiction book. Write three questions that you can answer using the book. Write the answer for each question. (Question Words: who, what, where, when, why, how) Share your questions and answers with a family member.	Read a fictional book. Create a story map by describing the characters, setting, problem, and resolution. What happens in the beginning, middle, and end of the story? Retell the story from beginning, middle, and end.	Read a nonfiction book. What is the main topic? Write three new facts that you learned about the topic.
Make a list of the different nouns (person, place, or thing) and verbs (action word) you see in your book. Write three sentences using nouns and verbs.	Choose a page from your book. What you notice and wonder about the illustration or photograph? Make a list of adjectives to describe the illustration or photograph.	Find 5 r-controlled vowel digraphs in your book (-ar, -er, -ir, -or, -ur). Write a sentence with each.
Be an author and illustrator by creating your own book. Record yourself reading your book and post on Seesaw.	What is your favorite part of the story? Why? Write and illustrate your favorite part of the story.	Write a paragraph on the topic that you read about. Don't forget to include a topic statement, three facts/details, and a conclusion. Read your paragraph to your family.
